410 Guardian Fees and Expenses

410.2 All compensation for the services and expenses of the guardian shall be documented, reasonable in amount, and incurred for the incapacitated person's welfare. The guardian shall not pay or advance himself/herself fees or expenses from any source except as approved by the Court. The guardian shall review each of the following factors in determining the reasonableness of his/her fee: (a) the necessity of the service, (b) the time required, (c) the degree of skill and experience required to perform the service, and (d) the cost of any reasonable alternative.
